Masjid Quba

Front view of Masjid Quba – Photo: B.Munier

Quba is the place on the outskirts of Madinah where the Prophet (ﷺ), accompanied by Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) arrived and first stayed after emigrating from Makkah. They arrived on Monday 12th Rab'i al-Awwal, fourteen years after Prophethood and this date marks the beginning of the Islamic calendar (Hijra), (16th July 622 CE). A masjid was established here by the Prophet (ﷺ), the first to be built in Islam.

- The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "He who purifies himself at his home and comes to Masjid Quba and offers two rakats therein, will be rewarded the reward of an Umrah (lesser pilgrimage)." [Sunan ibn Majah]

Sign at Masjid Quba

Interior of Masjid Quba – Photo: makkahmadeenah (Instagram)

Aerial view of Masjid Quba – Photo: makkahmadeenah (Instagram)

Historic photo of Masjid Quba

Masjid Jummah

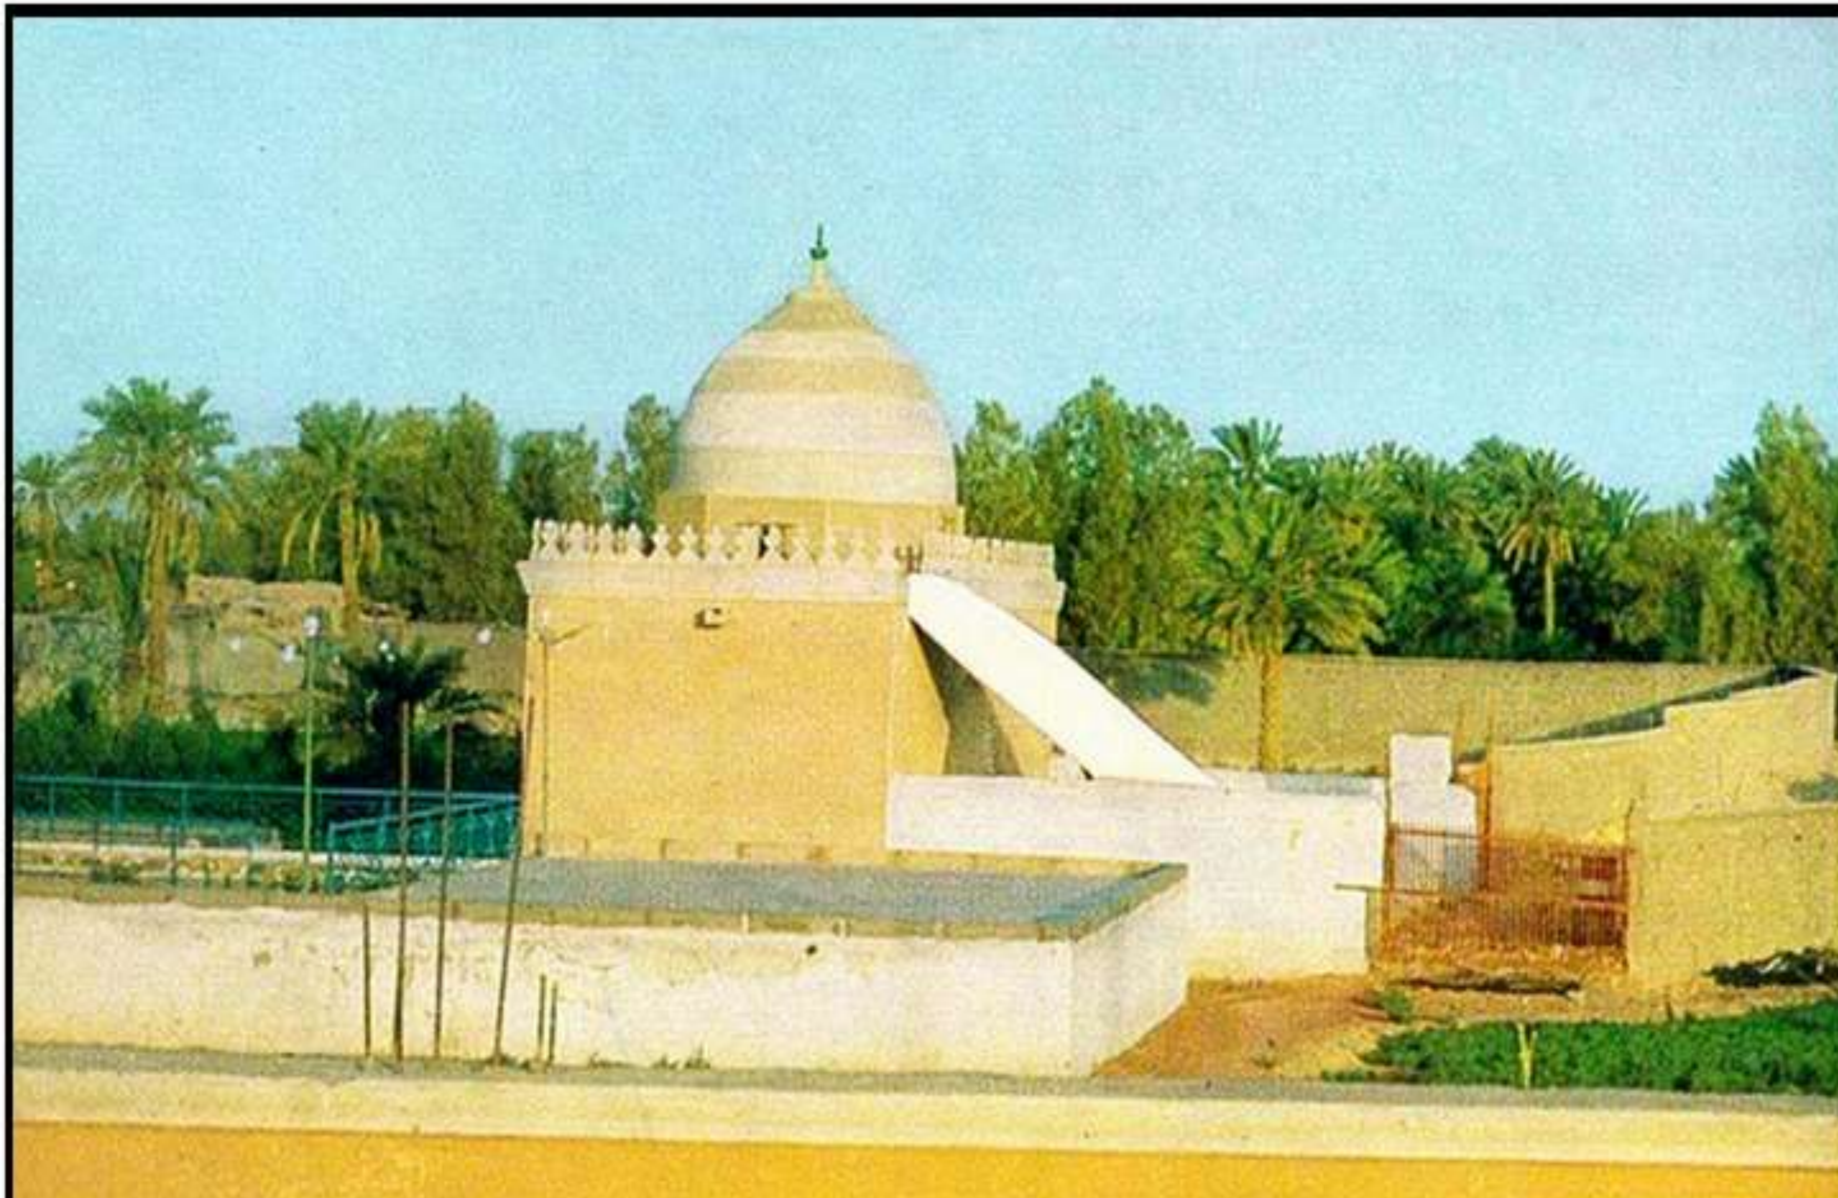

Front of Masjid Jummah

Masjid Jummah, on the boundary of Madinah marks the site where the Prophet (ﷺ) led the first Jummah salah, shortly after his Hijrah (migration) from Makkah. It is about 2.5 km from Masjid-e-Nabwi.

Overhead view of Masjid Jummah – Photo: makkahmadeenah (Instagram)

- Masjid Jumma is also known by Masjid Bani Salim, Masjid al wadi, Masjid Ghubaib and Masjid Aatikah.

Historic photo of Masjid Jummah – Photo: alsayedadnan2 (Instagram)

Masjid Qiblatain

Front of Masjid Qiblatain

This is Masjid Qiblatain (Mosque of the Two Qiblas). It is historically important to Muslims as this is where in Rajjab 2 AH the revelation of the Quran came to change the direction of the Qibla from Bait-al-Maqdis in Jerusalem to the Ka'bah in Makkah.

Marker opposite the present qiblah wall showing the direction of the original qiblah

Masjid Qiblatain present qiblah wall

Aerial view of Masjid Qiblatain – Photo: makkahmadeenah (Instagram)

Saqeefah garden

Entrance to the Saqeefah garden

Situated 200m west of Masjid-e-Nabwi, the Saqeefah garden belonged to the Banu Sa'edah and is where the Muslims consulted regarding who should be appointed the Caliphate after the demise of the Prophet (ﷺ). It is presently a library.

Saqeefah garden entrance – Photo:wikimapia.org

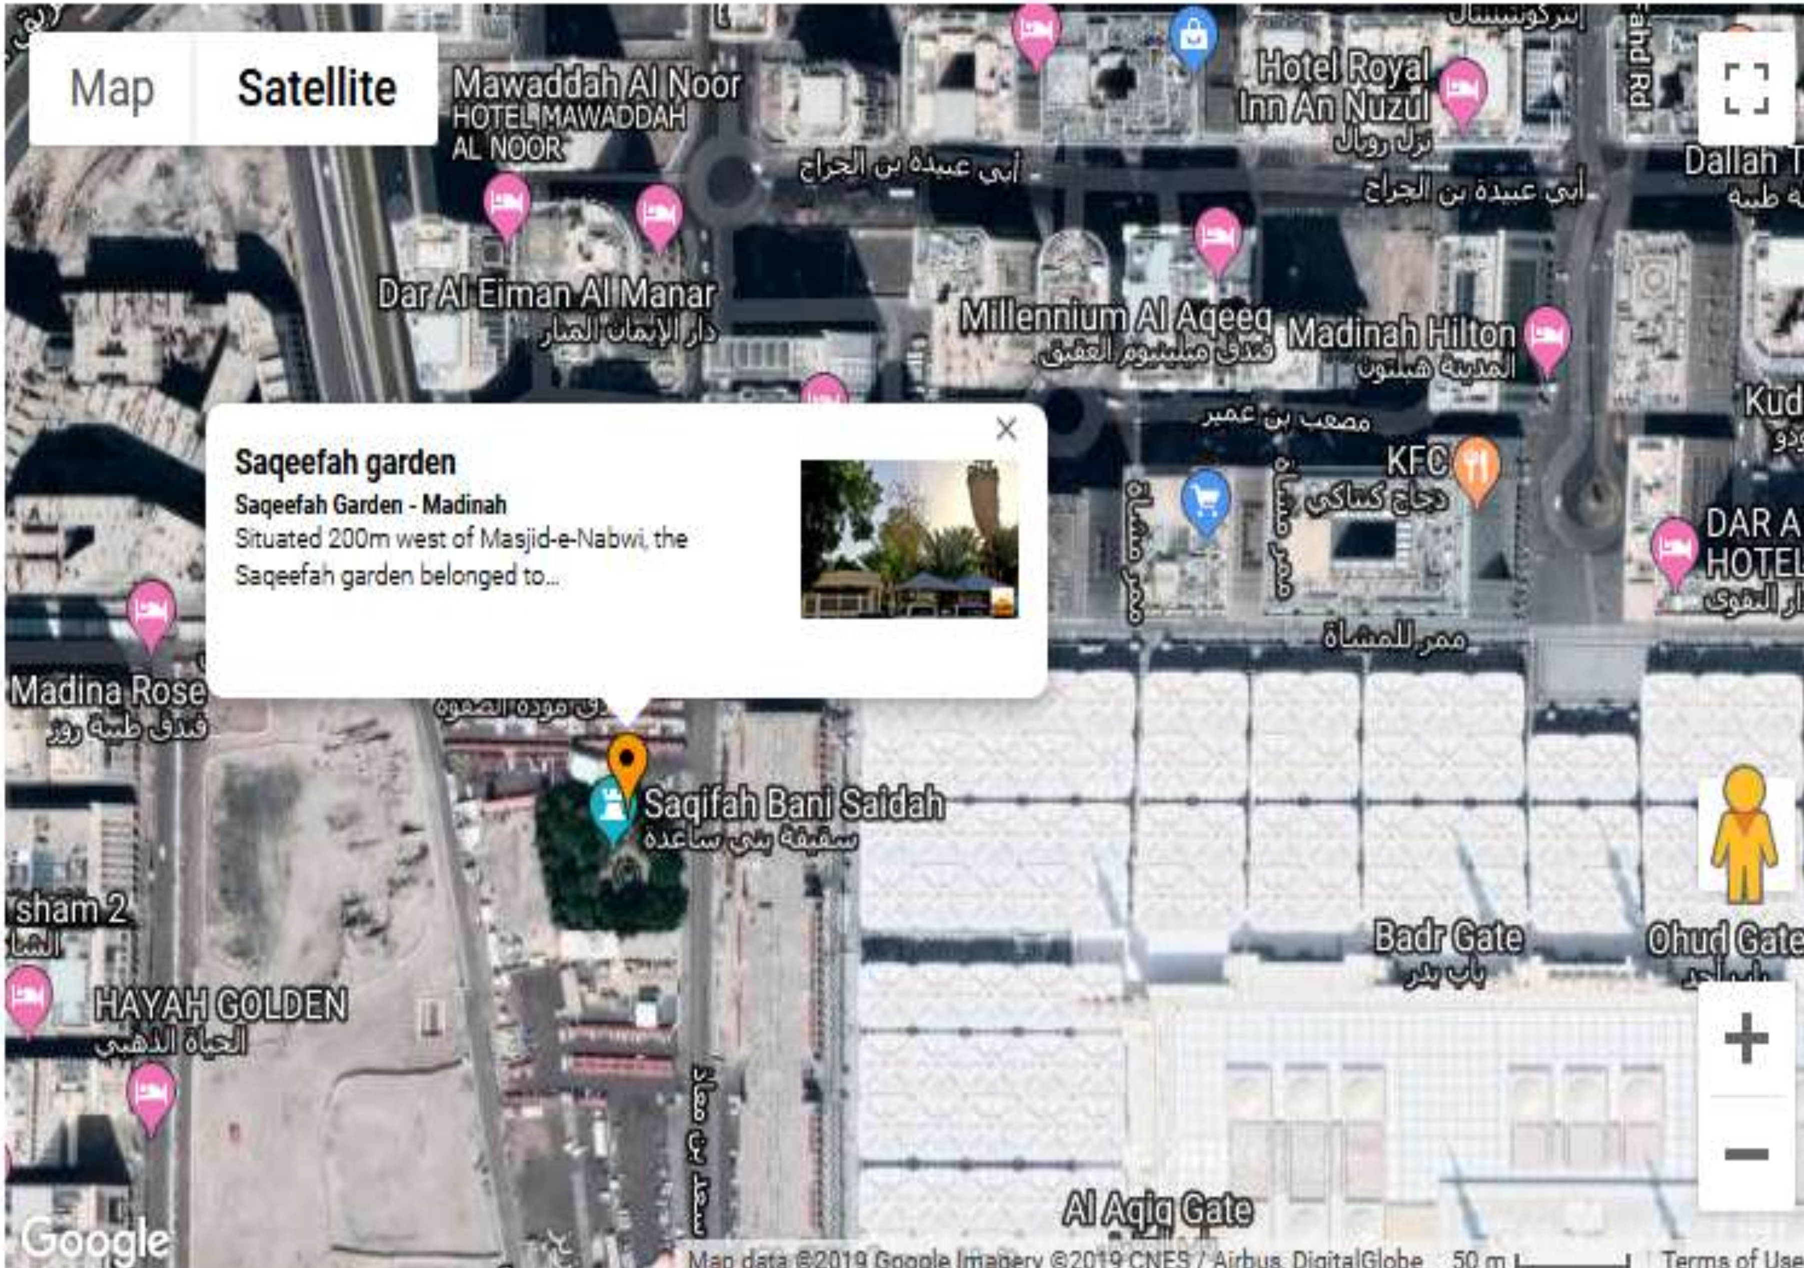

Inside the Saqeefah garden

External view – Photo:greendeensa.org

Sign for the Saqeefah garden

Map
Satellite
Mawaddah Al Noor
HOTEL MAWADDAH AL NOOR
Hotel Royal Inn An Nuzul
Dallah Ta
Dar Al Eiman Al Manar
دار الإيمان المنار
Millennium Al Aqeeq
Madinah Hilton
المدينة هيلتون
Kudu
KFC
دجاج كنتاكي
DAR AL HOTEL
Saqeefah garden
Saqeefah Garden - Madinah
Situated 200m west of Masjid-e-Nabwi, the Saqeefah garden belonged to...
Madina Rose
Saqifah Bani Saidah
سقيفة بني ساعدة
HAYAH GOLDEN
الحياة الذهبي
Badr Gate
باب بدر
Ohud Gate
Al Aqiq Gate
Google
Map data ©2019 Google Imagery ©2019 CNES / Airbus, DigitalGlobe
50 m
Terms of Use

Masjid Abuzar Ghifari

Front view of Masjid Abuzar Ghifari

Masjid Abuzar Ghifari is situated 900m north of Masjid-e-Nabwi and is also known as Masjid Sajdah after a hugely auspicious incident that occurred here with the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

Historic Masjid Abuzar Ghifari

Location map:

Masjid Ghamama

Front view of Masjid Ghamama

This masjid, located about 300m south-west of Masjid-e-Nabwi is known as Masjid Ghamama. It is built on the site where the Prophet (ﷺ) performed the Eid salah during the last years of his life.

Masjid Ghamama – Photo: Makkah and Madinah (Flickr)

Location map

Masjid Sabaq

Location of Masjid Sabaq

The main picture above shows the approximate area where in the time of the Prophet (ﷺ) horses were trained for the purpose of fighting in the cause of Allah. A masjid called Masjid Sabaq was once erected here but has now been removed.

Masjid Sabaq horse training area